FRIEND OF GREGORIO JOREC

met ~~HEBERT~~ ~~HEBERT~~ in Geneva with the following results:
HEBERT complained about his financial situation and worried about the fact that the U. S. and Britain were losing their struggle with Stalin.

received a telephone call from a ~~HEB~~. ~~FRANCOISE~~ ~~HEBERT~~.
HEBERT asked him to accompany her to the French Frontier at Billa-Tourneur (Canton of Bern) where she was to meet a Georgian from Paris. She met a young man whose name was ~~SCOTIA~~ ~~AMIRASHVILI~~, who appeared at the frontier with an identity card of a French citizen in the name of ~~HEBERT~~. This man was about 26 years old and came from HEBERT's friends and relatives in Paris, ~~HEB~~, HEBERT and ~~HEBERT~~. He had no letters, but said all of HEBERT's friends were in a difficult situation in France, especially if ~~HE~~ ~~GAULLE~~ came into power because then they would be arrested as Bolsheviks. HEBERT suggested those that were compromised should go to Switzerland, Italy or Spain. Young ~~SCOTIA~~ told HEBERT that ~~HEBERT~~ demanded HEBERT to call a conference of the group in Switzerland for April or the latest in May, because the Spanish refused to grant visas for Spain, where the group originally intended to meet. ~~HEB~~. ~~HEBERT~~ stated ~~HEBERT~~ was in no position to demand anything. ~~SCOTIA~~ asked if ~~HEBERT~~, by any chance, had betrayed HEBERT. ~~HEB~~. ~~HEBERT~~ was very astonished by this question and wanted to know why he asked such a question, but ~~SCOTIA~~ did not answer. ~~HEB~~. ~~HEBERT~~ handed ~~SCOTIA~~ $3,000 and the meeting terminated. ~~HEB~~. ~~HEBERT~~ gave more details about this meeting, but she claimed to know very little, stating that HEBERT came to see her in Diklerets and begged her to deliver the money to ~~SCOTIA~~ at Billa-Tourneur. She thought HEBERT and ~~HEBERT~~ had decided to work with the British.
